Biography

Ryan is passionate about building relationships and developing others. He carries certificates in leadership, entrepreneurship and is certified as an Everything DiSC facilitator. Ryan takes an entrepreneurial approach to problem solving, believing in opportunity instead of roadblocks. He has experience in a variety of industries, including hospitality & tourism, where he leveraged his culinary diploma to work as a banquet Chef.

Ryan has exposure to every part of LeaderSharp's Clients' journeys, from first conversations all the way through to project execution and follow-up which helps him create a seamless and impactful client experience. He also supports LeaderSharp's custom programs as a virtual producer supporting Associates with online facilitations.

Ryan volunteers as the partnership Specialist for the Alberta Esports Association where he manages stakeholder relations with government, academic, corporate, & non-profit organizations. He also sits on Esport Canada's National Competitive Council as a voting representative of Alberta.
