

Britt Penn

B.A., CEC, PCC

Biography

Britt Penn (she/her) is a Vancouver based Certified Executive Coach, dedicated to empowering impact-driven leaders on their journey towards greater success and fulfillment. With a clientele spanning diverse industries such as entertainment, technology, healthcare, and non-profit sectors, Britt partners with individuals who share a deep commitment to fostering social impact and shaping a better world for all.

Britt firmly believes that coaching conversations are among the most potent catalysts for personal and professional growth. She offers a dedicated and nurturing environment that encourages exploration and experimentation in pursuit of your most impactful outcomes. Her clients often commend her for asking the tough questions that lead to profound insights while also having a few laughs along the way.

Prior to her career transition into leadership development, Britt spent nearly a decade in the music industry where she played a pivotal role in orchestrating hundreds of concerts, music festivals, and corporate events featuring some of the world's top artists. This immersive experience within a high-stakes, dynamic corporate environment greatly informs her coaching approach today.

In her role as an executive and leadership coach, Britt is committed to empowering individuals to unlock their full potential and drive positive change in their lives and organizations. With a unique blend of professional expertise and a personable touch, she is your trusted partner on the path to achieving leadership excellence.
