Biography

Over the past eight years Kara has supported and contributed to the growth and success of LeaderSharp Group through a variety of roles. As Operations Manager, Kara's role involves creating and maintaining client-centric processes with a focus on creating a culture of quality and customer satisfaction.

Kara is masterful at coordinating and managing resources and relationships and has a unique ability to recognize inefficiencies and challenges present in operational systems. As a leader, Kara is passionate about empowering individuals, providing mentorship, and encouraging continuous learning and career development.

Kara graduated with distinction from the University of Lethbridge with a Bachelor's Degree in Environmental Science in 2004. She started working in the non-profit sector as an intern with the Nature Conservancy of Canada, then went on to work in a variety of program management roles for Operation Grassland Community, Saskatchewan Watershed Authority, Fortis Alberta and CNOOC International. In 2015, Kara joined LeaderSharp Group where her background in program management and coordination has been instrumental in delivering best-in-class custom training programs for LeaderSharp's clients.
